

NumberCalc Numerology
Relate Compatibility Reading
For
Barak Hussein Obama
And
Michelle Lavaughn Robinson

www.numerology.net

The Meaning of Numerology

Our names are much more than just a means of identification or a family relationship. Our destiny and experiences are written in our names given to us at birth. Numerology is here to protect, guide and reward those who have the foresight and wisdom to observe and understand the influences, insight and experiences written in our names.

It has been acknowledged throughout the ages, that names play an essential part in influencing and directing the destinies of mankind and that they represent experience, human nature character and divine sanction. The importance of names is frequently brought out in the Bible. On several occasions the Lord changed the names of his chosen ones, to represent the duties and services to be carried out. There were times when a name was chosen even before birth, as in the prophecy of Jesus Christ.

Numerology shows our inherent capabilities and the spiritual commands hidden in our names and the number comprising them. It is often called the blueprint of the soul. Pythagoras gave life to Numerology by applying mathematical formulas to the name, which reveals the ultimate life goal of the person bearing the name.

Deep in the heart of everyone lies the dreams of riches, self-actualization and spiritual evolvment. The way is there and hidden in each person's name. Numerology will help you discover it.

The Meaning of Birth Force

Everybody wants to know the secret of how to be successful. To be assured of one's future, right from the start in the business world, is a dream almost too good to be true. This can happen for you, right now if you understand. On the day you were born, a record of what you are like, what you have to offer the world, your talents and abilities were outlined. The Birth Force is what you came here to experience.

If your parents had read this valuable record, much anxiety and uncertainty could have been spared. They would have had the understanding required to direct and guide you, to help you achieve your inherent goals. The Birth Force is a great tool to use when choosing a career. It tells you what you are fitted to do. It's your innate resource of talents and abilities that you can draw upon as you go forth to meet the responsibility of your Destiny, as shown by your name at birth. Even though the Birth Force and Destiny numbers are different in purpose and meaning, they work together. If you have confidence in yourself and your natural abilities that come from your Birth Force, and work toward the goals of your Destiny influence, you will surely achieve success. By knowing yourself you will avoid feelings of insecurity. The rule for figuring the Birth Force is to add up the numbers of the month, day, and the year you were born and reduce them to a single digit.

Barak's Number 11 Birth Force

Barak, your birth date 08/04/1961, gives you a strong sense of individuality and you are the leader type, demanding the right to act and think according to your own convictions and ideas. You have the ability to lead and direct others and to establish your own business if you wish. You have courage, will power, good concentration, executive ability and a good sense of perception. When you utilize your creativity, you are capable of overcoming any barriers to success. Barak, your flair for taking charge of any given situation, and because of your creative inspiration, you have the ability to lead others far beyond their normal limits. You will quickly climb to the top in whatever you choose to do, and others will look to you for your strong leadership qualities. You have a good sense of humor, and are generally selective in friendships.

You have strong powers of attraction, which can lead to interesting experiences or lines of work. Barak, you will be living up to your Birth Force if you maintain your originality, establish new ideas, and be your own person. A life of positive achievement and constructive action is open to the number One Birth Force. You will be required, however, to develop the body, mind and spirit to the highest point of efficiency. You must become independent and refuse limitations.

The negative side of your character has a tendency to be over-confident, egotistic and dominant. At times you could even be bossy and impatient with others. You may refuse the advice of others and act in total self-interest. Avoid allowing these negative tendencies to become set or fixed habits.

There is unlimited opportunity for the number One Birth Force through mental interests and undertakings. It's natural for those with this Birth Force to be self-employed. However, if you do choose to work for someone else, make sure the job offers freedom and decision making. If you are given enough authority in your occupation, you could produce outstanding results. All fields of opportunity are open to you. Careers that are outside the "norm" may interest you. Barak, your originality, executive abilities and initiative could bring you much success. Your originality in any career will ultimately lead to success.

Michelle's Number 11 Birth Force

Michelle, your birth date 01/17/1964, gives you a strong sense of individuality and you are the leader type, demanding the right to act and think according to your own convictions and ideas. You have the ability to lead and direct others and to establish your own business if you wish. You have courage, will power, good concentration, executive ability and a good sense of perception. When you utilize your creativity, you are capable of overcoming any barriers to success. Michelle, your flair for taking charge of any given situation, and because of your creative inspiration, you have the ability to lead others far beyond their normal limits. You will quickly climb to the top in whatever you choose to do, and others will look to you for your strong leadership qualities. You have a good sense of humor, and are generally selective in friendships.

You have strong powers of attraction, which can lead to interesting experiences or lines of work. Michelle, you will be living up to your Birth Force if you maintain your originality, establish new ideas, and be your own person. A life of positive achievement and constructive action is open to the number One Birth Force. You will be required, however, to develop the body, mind and spirit to the highest point of efficiency. You must become independent and refuse limitations.

The negative side of your character has a tendency to be over-confident, egotistic and dominant. At times you could even be bossy and impatient with others. You may refuse the advice of others and act in total self-interest. Avoid allowing these negative tendencies to become set or fixed habits.

There is unlimited opportunity for the number One Birth Force through mental interests and undertakings. It's natural for those with this Birth Force to be self-employed. However, if you do choose to work for someone else, make sure the job offers freedom and decision making. If you are given enough authority in your occupation, you could produce outstanding results. All fields of opportunity are open to you. Careers that are outside the "norm" may interest you. Michelle, your originality, executive abilities and initiative could bring you much success. Your originality in any career will ultimately lead to success.

Barak's and Michelle's 4 Birth Force Composite

Barak and Michelle, you are the practical type and your relationship has outstanding qualities of organization, trust, loyalty, dignity and devotion. You are naturally conscientious, honest and have a strong sense of right and wrong. Your values are realistic and you probably don't take chances unless the odds are good. You are naturally friendly and have a fine sense of dignity and self-worth. You like to have a plan or goal in life and work out details with patience, precision and accuracy. You have a fine ability to manage and to establish order and routine.

Number Fours are generally very loyal, sensible and down to earth, with a sensible, scientific and positive approach to life. You also possess will-power, and once a decision is made, it's generally carried through to the bitter end.

The number Four Birth Force is sometimes said to be a hard path to follow, because it predicts a life of work and effort. However, it gives you the aptitude for hard work and you probably possess perseverance. When a problem presents itself, you can see it as a challenge, and seem to do better than when things are too easy. Barak and Michelle, be careful not to be too rigid, and guard against being bossy and dominant. Watch out for these negative tendencies, they can create difficulties. Instead, allow your fine powers of constructive endeavor and management to shine in your business and social affairs.

There is opportunity in occupations that require organization, attention to detail, precision, systematic routine and the ability to bring plans into concrete form.

Barak's 11 and Michelle's 11 Birth Force Compatibility

When two number one's meet they are impressed in the strength each other possesses; they have finally met their match! Both very self reliant, they won't have to rely on each other for fun and excitement; they're used to creating their own. Their pioneering spirit will keep their relationship exciting, each trying to out do the other with their original and creative approach to life. Both non-conformists, they set their own guidelines, and are not likely to fall into a rigid routine. It can be a busy, fast paced relationship, as both like to lead very full lives.

This relationship must be on equal terms, because both are used to being the leader and neither is a good follower. If one person is always playing the role of boss, serious conflicts could develop. With the stubborn nature of the one, fights that occur are likely to be long and dramatic, because neither one is prone to giving in. This will not be a dull combination, however, because both thrive on challenge and excitement. If they can stroke each others ego and provide enthusiastic encouragement for the others original ideas, they can coexist harmoniously.

With their creativity and pioneering spirit, sex is always innovative, original and certainly not confined to their bedroom.

The Meaning of the Hearts Desire

Has anyone ever said to you, "Why don't you think like I do?" This remark, instead of influencing you, may have annoyed you to the point of wanting to do something completely different.

If everyone acted and thought alike, there would be no incentive to grow and develop, create or carry on. Instead, there would be no progress and no fun in living; complete boredom. Man's link in the chain of divine activity and divine principle is the right to constructive self-expression. We are born free souls and must grow and live in ever increasing attunement and beauty from within. Only then can we be true to our divine privileges, and our fellow man.

The Heart's Desire is one of the most important numbers in Numerology. It is found from the letters a-e-i-o-u in the name at birth. The Heart's Desire number will help you discover what it is you desire to be, or do.

The urge of the Heart's Desire is so strong, that at times it overrules all other traits of character; even those of the Birth Force and Destiny. At other times it may lie dormant and be repressed by circumstances until suddenly awakened, it becomes active with a surprising force, changing all well-organized plans for work and success. This inner seed of self-expression is within every person. However, not all people hear or stop to listen to the call of the soul's command and fail to gain from its life-giving energies.

If you are thinking about joining another in a domestic relationship or business affair, it is wise to know the inner nature of your loved one or associate. Even though you may have a lot in common, there will probably come a time when the inner nature of the other person (or your own) comes to the surface. This may come as a surprise, if you are not prepared, and may cause problems. However, if you are prepared, it could bring a deeper understanding and greater happiness.

The nature of the Heart's Desire never changes. In the background, the urge of man's soul is quietly taking part in his desires, interests and affairs. To summarize, the Heart's Desire is: What the individual values most, personal likes and dislikes, methods and ways of looking at things, the way the true character will be expressed, the ambition and incentive, the soul's longing, the individuality and the inner urge.

Barak's Number 10 Hearts Desire

Barak, you are strongly individualized, independent, ambitious and capable of great accomplishments. You like to feel independent and do things in your own way and are not one to shirk responsibility. You probably have a lot of determination and inner strength. You want to get ahead in the world, but by your own intelligence and effort, and may not be truly happy in a subordinate position. If you find yourself in such a position for any length of time, it may mean you are not delving deep enough into your heart for the strength of character that is there. You have too much executive ability, determination, creative force and inner power to allow you to stay at the foot of the ladder of life.

You will make your way in the world with satisfaction and ease if you make use of your latent powers of original and interesting ideas and executive ability, and apply them in a constructive manner. Barak, you don't mind working alone; however, you want to handle only the main issues, leaving the details to others. You have a tendency to refer everything to yourself and want your home, children, spouse, etc. to be a credit to you. You seek out opportunities to display your usefulness and strength, and are proud of your abilities and want to be praised for them.

At times your determination and inner will can become too strong, and now and then you can be impulsive, stubborn, or headstrong. Barak, you do not like to be told what to do, or be under the control of those who are not in harmony with your methods or ideals. This might make you appear egotistical, bossy, dominating, or contrary, and could lead to misunderstandings or unhappiness at certain times in your life. All Ones need to cultivate friendliness and human interest.

Keep your self-confidence strong and stand up for your rights. Maintain pride in yourself and your accomplishments, but at the same time, always express your plans and ideas with sincerity, courtesy, and graciousness. This will build character and make you a fine leader, admired by others.

You also feel the need to be recognized and at the head of things in your home life and business. As long as your nature is generous and kind, you always will be. You are loyal in friendships, and fair in business. You want to succeed and are usually capable of doing great things in life.

Barak's Hearts Desire Testing Number 19

The 19/1 Testing Number or Karmic Debt as it's often called, shows there was some abuse in a previous life relating to this number in its given area. Be willing to understand this debt, accept its burden and make the effort to move on to a more positive use of this energy.

The 19/1 exhibits traits and energy of the negative 1, possibly being so concerned with his own needs that he totally overlooks the needs of others. He may be surprised by others negative reactions to him, not understanding why this is so. The person with the 19/1 may also find it difficult to stand on his own two feet and tends to blame others or the world in general.

In this life, the individual must learn to realize the needs of others and look past his own needs. He must also learn to stand on his own two feet, and not be dependent on others, no matter how difficult this struggle may be.

The key to overcoming Karmic Debt is awareness. Strive to master these negative tendencies and turn them into positive energies.

Michelle's Number 11 Hearts Desire

Michelle, you are strongly individualized, independent, ambitious and capable of great accomplishments. You like to feel independent and do things in your own way and are not one to shirk responsibility. You probably have a lot of determination and inner strength. You want to get ahead in the world, but by your own intelligence and effort, and may not be truly happy in a subordinate position. If you find yourself in such a position for any length of time, it may mean you are not delving deep enough into your heart for the strength of character that is there. You have too much executive ability, determination, creative force and inner power to allow you to stay at the foot of the ladder of life.

You will make your way in the world with satisfaction and ease if you make use of your latent powers of original and interesting ideas and executive ability, and apply them in a constructive manner. Michelle, you don't mind working alone; however, you want to handle only the main issues, leaving the details to others. You have a tendency to refer everything to yourself and want your home, children, spouse, etc. to be a credit to you. You seek out opportunities to display your usefulness and strength, and are proud of your abilities and want to be praised for them.

At times your determination and inner will can become too strong, and now and then you can be impulsive, stubborn, or headstrong. Michelle, you do not like to be told what to do, or be under the control of those who are not in harmony with your methods or ideals. This might make you appear egotistical, bossy, dominating, or contrary, and could lead to misunderstandings or unhappiness at certain times in your life. All Ones need to cultivate friendliness and human interest.

Keep your self-confidence strong and stand up for your rights. Maintain pride in yourself and your accomplishments, but at the same time, always express your plans and ideas with sincerity, courtesy, and graciousness. This will build character and make you a fine leader, admired by others.

You also feel the need to be recognized and at the head of things in your home life and business. As long as your nature is generous and kind, you always will be. You are loyal in friendships, and fair in business. You want to succeed and are usually capable of doing great things in life.

Barak's and Michelle's 3 Heart Desire Composite

Your finest characteristics are imagination and inspiration, and when you learn how to use them intelligently, they can be the means of your attaining the best that life has to offer. You are something of a dreamer by nature, and have a strong desire to find the joy and romance in life. You would rather be happy than practical, and enjoy making a game out of life. You like to do things on a large scale, and enjoy a nice environment and the comforts and luxuries of life. You want beauty in all of your surroundings, and are artistic and creative.

However, should your desire for self-expression be hindered in any way, you could become very unhappy, repressed, or even ill. You will generally find yourself at the center of activities, because of your ability to liven things up with your friendly and pleasant manner. You enjoy expressing your ideas and opinions; however, there is a reserved side to your character also, and you can escape the limelight and live in a world of emotion and feeling. This emotion should be expressed in a constructive and positive manner.

At times you can be too exacting if things do not come up to the standards of loveliness and perfection you desire, and you may be too concerned about small things. It would be better for you if you followed your desire to do things on a large scale, and not to allow yourself to be held down by limitations. Achieve your plans and goals, and stick to your dreams and inspirations. However, use these dreams to attain your goals.

Barak's 10 and Michelle's 11 Hearts Desire Compatibility

When two number one's meet they are impressed in the strength each other possesses; they have finally met their match! Both very self reliant, they won't have to rely on each other for fun and excitement; they're used to creating their own. Their pioneering spirit will keep their relationship exciting, each trying to out do the other with their original and creative approach to life. Both non-conformists, they set their own guidelines, and are not likely to fall into a rigid routine. It can be a busy, fast paced relationship, as both like to lead very full lives.

This relationship must be on equal terms, because both are used to being the leader and neither is a good follower. If one person is always playing the role of boss, serious conflicts could develop. With the stubborn nature of the one, fights that occur are likely to be long and dramatic, because neither one is prone to giving in. This will not be a dull combination, however, because both thrive on challenge and excitement. If they can stroke each others ego and provide enthusiastic encouragement for the others original ideas, they can coexist harmoniously.

With their creativity and pioneering spirit, sex is always innovative, original and certainly not confined to their bedroom.

The Meaning of the Destiny

"What are my chances for success in this life and what does life hold in store for me?" These are questions asked again and again by intelligent people, searching to find themselves and their right place in life.

Written in the symbols of your name at birth, is the story of what you were born to do. It tells the part you will play on the stage of life, now and in the future. Life is not a matter of chance and uncertainty.

Every name given at birth is unique. It contains a divine promise and divine command of personal privilege and opportunity. In return, it demands a promise, to keep faith with the purpose written on the Destiny scroll of the name. It is a spiritual awakening to know what your name means.

Your Destiny requirements are not always easy to meet. They may include undesirable experiences you do not understand. However, as you flow with these experiences, you'll eventually swing into the full tide of accomplishments you were destined for and will experience the wonderful satisfaction of fulfilling your purpose in life.

The exact name given to you at birth tells this story. All other names, signatures, nicknames, changes of names or married names are but channels through which the Destiny is expressed and worked out. You may not be fully in performance at first, but if you keep trying, you will find it easy and finally gain the success, love and repeated rewards your name has promised you.

The Destiny number is found by adding all the letters in the name given at birth. It is your field of opportunity, your life's purpose. It is what must be given of yourself to others and to life and what you must live up to in this lifetime. Your Destiny will tell you the environment you require and the kind of people you need to surround yourself with. It also explains the spiritual mission to which you have been appointed. Don't read it as "what you are", read it "what you must do".

Throughout your lifetime, the Destiny requirements remain the same. They can never be neglected. Many experiences brought about through your Destiny number will test your willingness to be true to the purpose of your birth.

Barak's Number 7 Destiny

It is your destiny to be one of the "educators" of humanity. Barak, you must study and be sure of your facts before you can teach others, or demonstrate your knowledge to your fellow man. You have been destined to delve into the scientific, hidden and occult, and to discover, and understand the mysteries of life.

In the midst of people, you may often feel alone. You must learn not to depend upon the sympathy or support of others, and live by your own soul's virtues. Barak, your destiny requires you live by the realities of life, and not by superficial ideals. You will not be alone when you realize this and the world will beat a path to your door for learning, counsel, advice, and to bask in the certainty and calm of your life.

You should try not to live too intensely in sentiment and emotion, as the affairs of your business and perhaps even marriage may go to pieces. Through skill, wisdom, science and knowledge, you take your place in the world. Barak, you cannot take the easy path. You must remember, you are the "educator."

Although you may be out of the common class, you will be respected and loved for what you know and have attained.

Associate with people who are the thinkers of the world, those who are mathematically and analytically inclined. By surrounding yourself with these types of people, you will allow yourself the opportunity to grow and excel.

Go into out-of-the-way places. Travel, study religion and the sciences of being. You could become the connoisseur of literature, art and antiques. Scientific art should interest you. Your home should be warm and helpful to all that seek knowledge and you should earnestly try to bring science and occult principles of knowledge, to bear upon human experience.

You will find opportunity in areas that require keen analysis, attention to detail, inner wisdom and the ability to lead and command people. This would include being a clergyman, lawyer or judge, scientist, artist, inventor, educator or administrator.

The number seven is the thinker and the sage. Seven gives us the "final word" in whatever form of expression engaged in. For he is a perfectionist and does not speak until he is sure. As long as he is not taken into the machinery side of business, he is at home in any line of executive work.

Michelle's Number 7 Destiny

It is your destiny to be one of the "educators" of humanity. Michelle, you must study and be sure of your facts before you can teach others, or demonstrate your knowledge to your fellow man. You have been destined to delve into the scientific, hidden and occult, and to discover, and understand the mysteries of life.

In the midst of people, you may often feel alone. You must learn not to depend upon the sympathy or support of others, and live by your own soul's virtues. Michelle, your destiny requires you live by the realities of life, and not by superficial ideals. You will not be alone when you realize this and the world will beat a path to your door for learning, counsel, advice, and to bask in the certainty and calm of your life.

You should try not to live too intensely in sentiment and emotion, as the affairs of your business and perhaps even marriage may go to pieces. Through skill, wisdom, science and knowledge, you take your place in the world. Michelle, you cannot take the easy path. You must remember, you are the "educator."

Although you may be out of the common class, you will be respected and loved for what you know and have attained.

Associate with people who are the thinkers of the world, those who are mathematically and analytically inclined. By surrounding yourself with these types of people, you will allow yourself the opportunity to grow and excel.

Go into out-of-the-way places. Travel, study religion and the sciences of being. You could become the connoisseur of literature, art and antiques. Scientific art should interest you. Your home should be warm and helpful to all that seek knowledge and you should earnestly try to bring science and occult principles of knowledge, to bear upon human experience.

You will find opportunity in areas that require keen analysis, attention to detail, inner wisdom and the ability to lead and command people. This would include being a clergyman, lawyer or judge, scientist, artist, inventor, educator or administrator.

The number seven is the thinker and the sage. Seven gives us the "final word" in whatever form of expression engaged in. For he is a perfectionist and does not speak until he is sure. As long as he is not taken into the machinery side of business, he is at home in any line of executive work.

Barak's and Michelle's 5 Destiny Composite

You are destined to have many changes and experiences in your life. Some of these will be forced upon you, and others will be of your own making. Your mission in life is to promote "progress" and "freedom," and to keep life moving forward. However, you may find it hard to associate yourself in a permanent way with the same people, undertakings or work. Only by letting go of the old can the new be realized, as all progress comes through new ideas, methods and change. This is a lesson you must learn, for you came into the world to be one of those who stand for liberty for all, as well as for the few.

You must know for yourself that lasting happiness cannot exist, when the right to be free is not fully promised. If your life is not free, you must cultivate the versatility and resourcefulness which is in your makeup, and use your cleverness to keep up-to-date and in the flow of world progress.

Do not cling to the old or fear changes that come unexpectedly. Instead, except the new and make it a stepping stone to greater attainment and personal growth. To be free does not mean that you should deliberately break conventions. Progress will not come through rebellion. Instead, it stands for the willingness to learn, enlightenment, ambition and courage.

Combine tolerance and charity with instruction. Be a lawmaker and refuse to be left behind in the race.

You will find opportunity through people in general, as your destiny is a public one. You need to be given frequent opportunity for interesting and exciting worldly contact. However, you must guard against scattering your energies, as you are likely to have more than one iron in the fire.

You can broaden your life by being among all kinds of people, both Bohemian and religious. Mix with people who promote new ideas and lines of thought and education. Go among individuals who write, such as newspaper writers and columnists. Advertising, publicity and all fields of selling and public entertainment give you development and interest. Be a part of what is going on in the world, and don't allow yourself to be a rolling stone that gathers no moss.

Opportunity can also be found as a civic leader, senator or civil service officer, secret service chief, lawyer or detective, theatrical manager or director, dramatic critic, entertainer, actor or platform speaker, scientific inventor, traveling salesman, professional courier, mining or electrical specialist.

Number five's are "all things to all people" and they make the best salesmen as they understand every angle of approach. They succeed best in occupations that bring them into contact with people and they are welcomed in any crowd. They must have perfect freedom of action and speech and are miserable if shut up in an office. They are also born travellers.

Barak's 7 and Michelle's 7 Destiny Compatibility

These two dignified individuals are the ultimate perfectionists; nothing less will do. Their analytical nature insures that they look at every possible angle, to insure a flawless end result. Neither overly fond of parties or the crowded social scene, their idea of the perfect outing is dining in the corner of a quiet restaurant, or taking a hike in the wilderness. Not prone to express their innermost feelings until they trust each other explicitly, they respect each others need for privacy.

Their lack of communication could cause one or the other to feel lonely or misunderstood, which could provoke bouts of moodiness or depression. Any conflicts that develop will probably cause them both to plunge into heavy analysis, which could result in a lengthy reconciliation process. Not until they have both weighed and resolved all of the issues will the truce be called. Both very proud, they hate to give in. By keeping the communication lines open, being totally honest and maintaining their trust of each other, they can insure a very deep and meaningful relationship.

Fulfilling each others exotic fantasies, their lovemaking will be erotic and passionate.

The Meaning of the Personality

The personality will open many doors of opportunity when it's understood and made part of the character. It should be the channel through which the true character is expressed. An individual's personality does not represent the inner nature, nor is it the true self. Instead, it's the outer self; what you present when meeting others in business or social situations. There is a strong tendency to judge people by their personality. This can lead to many misunderstandings. A pleasing personality may cover up talent, weaknesses; even sincerity and honesty. On the other hand, a person with good abilities and character may be overlooked because of a dull or unattractive personality. The individual is quite often unaware of these mannerisms. As the person gets older, these traits become habits and may be very difficult to change. When attempting to get ahead in the world, it's important to combine the meaning of the personality number, to the talents of the birth force, and the more powerful urge of the heart's desire. This will allow for true character building. Since the personality is the way we express ourselves, it's important to be in harmony with this number when expressing ourselves. The personality number is found by adding all the consonants in the name given at birth, and reducing them to a single digit.

Barak's Number 7 Personality

When known, the number seven personality can be very friendly and likeable. However, on first impression, the number seven may appear somewhat aloof and hard to meet or get to know.

It is to your advantage to be well dressed and well groomed. Don't be afraid to add a touch of sparkle here and there. You can gain confidence by being well dressed, and by wearing clothing that is of good quality.

Michelle's Number 7 Personality

When known, the number seven personality can be very friendly and likeable. However, on first impression, the number seven may appear somewhat aloof and hard to meet or get to know.

It is to your advantage to be well dressed and well groomed. Don't be afraid to add a touch of sparkle here and there. You can gain confidence by being well dressed, and by wearing clothing that is of good quality.

Barak's and Michelle's 5 Personality Composite

The couple with the number five personality is versatile and changing, but may go to the extremes just to be recognized or daring.

You should not be too flashy in your expression.

The number five personality sees themselves free and unbound from ties and responsibilities, and living a life full of adventure and exciting experiences.

Barak's 7 and Michelle's 7 Personality Compatibility

These two dignified individuals are the ultimate perfectionists; nothing less will do. Their analytical nature insures that they look at every possible angle, to insure a flawless end result. Neither overly fond of parties or the crowded social scene, their idea of the perfect outing is dining in the corner of a quiet restaurant, or taking a hike in the wilderness. Not prone to express their innermost feelings until they trust each other explicitly, they respect each others need for privacy.

Their lack of communication could cause one or the other to feel lonely or misunderstood, which could provoke bouts of moodiness or depression. Any conflicts that develop will probably cause them both to plunge into heavy analysis, which could result in a lengthy reconciliation process. Not until they have both weighed and resolved all of the issues will the truce be called. Both very proud, they hate to give in. By keeping the communication lines open, being totally honest and maintaining their trust of each other, they can insure a very deep and meaningful relationship.

Fulfilling each others exotic fantasies, their lovemaking will be erotic and passionate.

NumberCalc Compatibility Chart

Barak Hussein Obama
And
Michelle Lavaughn Robinson

Barak

Section	Value	Testing
Birth Force	11
Hearts Desire	10	19
Destiny	7
Personality	7

Michelle

Value	Testing
11
11
7
7

Relationship

Compatibility	Composite
4	1111
3	1011
5	77
5	77